hosted: Jan Heine

Les Molloy, Patron of FMC

Dave Bamford, NZAC

Dennis Page, President of HVTC

HEINE LIBRARY

- Most of the late Arnold Heine's wonderful book collection, more than 1,500 books, will be sold.
- Jan, Arnold's widow, has generously asked that the proceeds of the Auction and Sale be donated to the Federated Mountain Clubs of New Zealand (FMC) Mountain and Forest Trust.
- Arnold's unique book collection is strong in mountaineering and exploration – ranging from the Himalaya and Tibet, through Central Asia and Siberia, Europe, North America, to the Pacific.
- There are many out-of-print books on New Zealand's mountaineering history, tramping, hunting, geology, ecology, conservation and culture, as well as guidebooks.

- Some books are signed by A J Heine:
and some have a Heine Library bookplate (shown above).

- AUCTION - from 7.30 pm on Friday 24th September, 2021 - of 102 lots of rarer books.
A catalogue of the lots is available from <mailto:secretary@hvtc.org.nz> . Absentee bids will be accepted by e-mail to <mailto:secretary@xtra.co.nz> until end of Wednesday 22nd September.
- BOOK SALE - from 9.30 am on Saturday 25th September, 2021 - of all remaining books.
These books will not be on view until 9.30 am on Saturday morning.
- VENUE: Hutt Valley Tramping Club, Birch St Reserve, from Birch St, Waterloo, Lower Hutt.

Note: Some seriously rare/collectable books from Arnold's Library - mostly Polar and Himalayan - are being sold through Colin Monteath's Barking Mad Books website:

https://colinmonteath.photoshelter.com/gallery/ARNOLD-HEINE-POLAR-MOUNTAIN-BOOKS/G0000ZDc8Budxcdg/C0000CrD_31 ; others at Dunbar Sloane's next book auction.
